SECURITY COUNCIL COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED
BY RESOLUTION 661 (1990) CONCERNING
THE SITUATION BETWEEN IRAQ AND KUWAIT

NOTE VERBALE DATED 21 FEBRUARY 1991 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF GHANA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Permanent Representative of Ghana to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour, upon instruction, to quote hereunder the text of the Ghana Government's reply to the Secretary-General's Note No. SCPC/7/90(3) of 8 October 1990, concerning the decisions of the Security Council Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) on the situation between Iraq and Kuwait:

"The Government of Ghana supports resolution 661 (1990). Ghana totally rejects the use of force in international relations and is committed to the peaceful settlement of disputes in accordance with the United Nations Charter. Ghana has furthermore reiterated its call upon Iraq to unconditionally withdraw its forces from Kuwait and settle its differences with Kuwait through peaceful negotiations.

With regard to measures for implementing resolution 661 (1990), the Government of Ghana would like to state that there is no known interaction between Ghana and Iraq as far as economic co-operation and trade are concerned. Ghana does not have any joint economic ventures with Iraq, nor have there been any recorded trade exchanges between Ghana and Iraq for the past few years. Consequently, there is no expectation of breaches of resolution 661 (1990) by the Ghanaian business community and it has not been considered necessary to enact formal legislation or institute specific administrative measures for enforcing the implementation of resolution 661 (1990)."
